

Property Advertiser

bicesteradvertiser.net/homes

Stone: what may be a solid investment

STONE cottages in pretty villages usually have the added charm of large gardens and good primary schools nearby.

A typical example is Bridge House in Wendlebury, which is a detached stone house with four reception rooms, three with open fireplaces.

Downstairs, the space includes a sitting room, dining room, garden room with windows on two sides plus one other reception room, a kitchen and utility

By Gill Oliver
bicester@nqo.com

room. Upstairs are three double bedrooms, one of which has an ensuite bathroom.

Other attractions include a double garage, gardens, summerhouse and hot tub. Bridge House is on the market for £495,000 through Kemp and Kemp.

Withens Cottage, in Middle Barton, is another detached stone cottage with a kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room with inglenook fireplace and exposed beams plus three double bedrooms. The gardens include a lawn, shed and sun terrace and it is on the market for £335,000, also through Kemp and Kemp on 01865 510000 or www.kempandkemp.co.uk

Honeysuckle Cottage, in Wendlebury, is a barn conversion with two double bedrooms plus a bathroom with feature roll-top bath and separate shower.

● Bridge House, Wendlebury, is on the market for £495,000

The kitchen boasts a Belfast sink and original slate floor, while the living room ceiling is vaulted with exposed A-frames and a gallery above.

The grounds include two courtyards and a veranda.

Honeysuckle Cottage is on the market for £350,000. For more information, or to arrange a viewing, contact Cridland & Co on 01869 343600 or visit cridlands.co.uk