

Characterful village home

Where: The Manse, Langford, near Lechlade.

What: An exceptional stone-built family home set in one of the Cotswolds' best unspoilt villages. The house has lots of character, dates back to the 1600s and has been beautifully renovated with sensitivity.

Living space: Inside, ground floor comprises a lovely mix of beams and exposed stone with contemporary comforts and finishes. Three reception rooms and farmhouse kitchen. First floor comprises 4 bedrooms and one bathroom. Attic comprises bedroom and bathroom.

Number of bedrooms: 5.

Guide price: £635,000.

Agent: Kemp and Kemp Residential, tel: 01865 510000.