

Renovated farmhouse is an oasis of style

WAYS Farm in Horspath dates from Georgian times but it has been brought up to date by the owners.

They have created an oasis of peace and style that is only three miles from the Oxford ring road.

Standing in 2.26 acres of gardens, paddocks and stables, the house is surrounded by farmland and enjoys uninterrupted views towards Shotover.

The extensive renovation has created four reception rooms, five bedrooms, two en-suites and two bathrooms.

In an outbuilding there is garaging for three cars, workshops, stores and a self-contained annexe which has flexible accommodation including a ground-floor living area, shower room and a bedroom above.

Graham MacDonald, of Kemp and Kemp Residential, said: "This house exudes classic elegance and striking modern sophistication.

"All the work has been carried out by craftsmen using materials which are either bespoke or of the highest quality.

"The surrounding paddocks are perfect for a family with equestrian interests."

WAYS Farm, Horspath is for sale at a guide price of £1.55m.
